

Formalin 37.3% – Powerful Disinfectant for Technical Use

Short Description

Formalin 37.3% is a strong disinfectant solution with a broad spectrum of antimicrobial activity. It is effective against bacteria, fungi, and viruses, including Pasteurella, Salmonella, Escherichia coli, streptococci, staphylococci, and Mycobacterium tuberculosis.

Key Advantages

- Effective disinfection – eliminates bacteria, fungi, and viruses.
 - Versatile application – used for disinfection of buildings, production facilities, animal housing, incubators, poultry houses, and other premises. Also used for treatment of limbs in cases of hoof rot.
-

Packaging

1 L and 5 L plastic bottles.

Usage and Dosage

For spraying:

Dilute 1 L of formalin in 20 L of water.

For fumigation:

Dilute 1 L of formalin in 1 L of water and allow complete evaporation in a hermetically sealed space.

Precautions

- Do not ingest. Avoid contact with eyes and skin.
 - Store safely in a cool, well-ventilated area, away from food and beverages.
-

Shelf Life

2 years.

Working solution must be prepared immediately before use and must not be stored.

Manufacturer

Biotecs, Georgia.